

Empowering Human Artists

Human creativity is under threat in this age of AI. Even talented visual artists, animators, painters and sculptors are finding their unique ideas stolen and duplicated by AI engines.

The Solution?

Human Intelligence® delivers a secure, patent-pending system that enables you to certifiably prove your work was created by you, a human. We give you the power to own your work.

We help you to fight back against gen AI, by safeguarding your vision & securing your rights.

Benefits

People value HUMAN art over AI: more than ever, authenticity matters.¹

Today, we know for a fact that galleries, art fans, buyers, and collectors are more likely to review, purchase, and promote your work if it's known to be human-created.² Getting  certified can help you connect with more art lovers who enjoy your visual creativity. We know your heart goes into your work: why not tell the world?
